

MUSEUM OF POLO & HALL OF FAME

APPLICATION FOR NOMINATION 2026 HALL OF FAME AWARD

Eligibility for election to the Hall of Fame: "Any person shall be eligible for election to the Polo Hall of Fame who has contributed to the game in an extraordinary and honorable manner whether by dedication to the sport or by ability and record as a player."

Emphasis is to be placed on playing record (highest handicap, number of wins in U.S. Open Championship or equivalent tournaments, other high goal tournaments,) International appearances and other extraordinary achievements or service to polo. Foreign players may be considered if it is determined that they have made significant contributions to polo in the United States. A player must be off his highest handicap for five consecutive years before he can be considered for induction.

The Nominating Committee reserves the right to place the candidate in the category (Hall of Fame or Iglehart Award) in which it seems most appropriate for consideration.

INCOMPLETE APPLICATIONS WILL NOT BE CONSIDERED. If a section does not apply indicate with n/a.
